
PEACE WEEK 2006:

NOVEMBER 5TH - 11TH

Peace Week is a collaborative initiative to bring members of our campus community together to celebrate peace, educate on the issues surrounding peace, and reflect on how we can bring peace to our own lives, and to our campus, local, national, and international communities.

We welcome all individuals and groups to this project. We hope that Peace Week 2006 will truly be a collaborative process. As such, we welcome proposals from registered student groups and University departments for an event you would like to run during Peace Week 2006. Examples of events may include: concerts, fundraisers, speakers, films, or round table discussions.

Proposals will be reviewed by the Peace Week Planning Committee. Grounds for refusal may include: the event is deemed unsafe or risky, or the event is not inclusive to all members of our campus community. Please note that if your event is accepted as a part of Peace Week 2006, your group or department is responsible for all aspects of the planning and implementation of the event. Also, if you are a student group, you will be expected to submit your event through the Student Risk Management process. For more information on this process, visit www.uoguelph.ca/%7Ecsahs-sa/docs/SRMMANUAL_PolicyHolders.pdf. The Peace Week Planning Committee will be available as a resource and support throughout your planning process, and will promote your event as a part of Peace Week.

If you would like to be a part of Peace Week 2006, please complete the form below and return by email to peace@uoguelph.ca by Friday, October 13th.
